The new website also features a short video seen below: "What is the One Year Challenge?"

Because many disciples are in the "still thinking about it" phase of going on a One Year Challenge, daily updates to inspiring content can be found on the OYC Facebook page, blog and Twitter feed, too.

Please join us as we "ask the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into his harvest field" (Matthew 9:38).

Reach2016 Early Bird Ends January 31, 2016

Written by Reach2016 Staff — Thursday, 14 January 2016

Over 9,000 adults and teens are registered, and over 1,000 younger children (infant thru fifth grade) recorded as attending, for a staggering early attendance total in excess of 10,000 as of now.

10,000. Yes, 10,000.

And we still have six months to go!

For every person that has already registered, we know that there at least one more who is still planning to. We also know that December was a busy month for many of you, and is a financially stressful time. As our Christmas gift, we extended the Early Bird registration deadline to January 31. You have until January 31, 2016 to take advantage of the 20% discount.

The transition to Regular Registration will be the greatest price increase. Most tracks will have a hike of at least $20 per person.

In addition, over 3,000 hotel rooms are now booked. Reach2016 is working to secure additional hotels in the city, but please hear us: Do not wait. Hotel options in the city are becoming more and more scarce, and we fully expect the remaining downtown hotels will sell out well before July. Secure your discount and your downtown room now: www.reach2016.com

Campus Ministries Launch New One Year Challenge Site

Written by One Year Challenge

Just in time for the new year, the ICOC Campus Service Team unveiled an updated One Year Challenge website, logo, Facebook page, blog and Twitter feed.

The previous website, Disciple Adventures, had aimed to widen the volunteer pool and matched people with one year to give—and those who wanted to find shorter-term opportunities to serve—with churches in need.

Most disciples, however, were far more familiar with the "One Year Challenge," or OYC, name. Unless they already had been introduced to the Disciple Adventures program, many did not understand the connection between a One Year Challenge and the Disciple Adventures website. The new website aims to make it easy to find and register for One Year Challenge opportunities.

Like Disciple Adventures, the One Year Challenge website will continue to be a part of the Disciples Today family of websites and other media connecting the International Churches of Christ.

The re-launched OYC program is focused on matching volunteers with two kinds of churches in need:

1. Critical ministries in campus towns (who often see the fruit of their ministry, after graduation, move to bigger cities!)
2. Churches in countries on the frontlines of the mission, defined as places five times "less evangelized" than the world average
